

CLNE Engagement Opportunities

NOVEMBER 2022

Learn more about most events by clicking the white box

5
Nov
2022

CLNE Local Immersion

WEATHERING
PENUMBRA THEATER
2:00 PM PERFORMANCE
guided group reflection following

Harrison David Rivers' WEATHERING is Directed by Colette Robert. What happens when a circle of women surrounds a couple experiencing excruciating loss? Can the wound ever close? Rivers' first commission for our stage reflects the pain of generations of Black women in a story of deliverance from grief.

17
Nov
2022

Come Together for Racial Justice

3RD THURSDAYS
7:00 - 8:30 PM
Zoom

Join us to lean into, stretch ourselves in (potentially uncomfortable) conversation, and experience Black leadership and stories in a way we don't often get in dominant culture spaces.

8
Nov
2022

Election Day!

YOUR POLLING PLACE
7:00 AM - 8:00 PM

Building Beloved Community also means participating in systems and policy change. Please be sure to exercise your right to vote. Learn more about day-of voter registration and find your polling place here.

Embodied Antiracism

Practice Group for White Bodies

WINTER SESSION
Beginning November 19, 2022

This group, hosted by New City Church in collaboration with CLNE, is an opportunity for white members of our community to come together to become more familiar with the white patterning that we embody, grow our capacity to be with the grief and shame of our people's history and present, and develop relationships and practices that can help us move through stuck patterns and shift towards greater alignment with our deeply held values.

10
Nov
2022

IDI Connect

2ND THURSDAYS
7:00 - 8:30 PM
Punch Bowl Social
1691 Park Pl Blvd, St. Louis Park

IDI growth comes thru self-reflection and practice. Join us for our monthly community night to stay on the journey together. We'll check in, reflect, and share stories. Not expected to attend every time to be part of the group- it's casual! Curious about the IDI? Join us to learn more!

21
Nov
2022

Youth Leadership Pop-Up

SUMNER LIBRARY
4:30 - 6 PM
611 Van White Memorial Blvd, Mpls

Calling all young people! You're invited to come connect, play games and eat snacks together!

CENTER FOR LEADERSHIP AND NEIGHBORHOOD ENGAGEMENT
Be the work.